

HERMOSA HERALD

APRIL 2008

Camp Hermosa is introducing a new weekend camp this year for young adults. We have prepared an FAQ for those who are considering attending.

I'm not sure whether I qualify as a "Young Adult" ... who can come to this weekend?

The weekend is geared towards the young and young-at-heart, and the guidelines for who can attend and who can't attend are pretty flexible. If you are somewhere in the neighbourhood of 19-35ish, you are welcome to attend.

Can I bring my kids/pet lizard/boss/stress about work deadlines/baggage from past relationships?

We're hoping to have a great time of fellowship and fun with other adults (or at least people who look like adults) and we feel we can best accomplish that if you leave all the items from that list at home.

Will I be forced to participate in the land Olympics against my will?

Only if you skip gophers. The rest of us plan to participate in a variety of activities that will be optional but also so fun you'll regret it for the rest of your life if you don't hop in with both feet (details to come later ... can you stand the suspense?). The rest of the weekend will be a pretty typical camp experience, with worship, input, and Vespers thrown into the mix at regular intervals.

I like to cook tubes of meat on sticks over a fire. Can this request be accommodated?

It most certainly can. We want you to be happy. Help us help you! And so on and so forth. If you have any questions about the weekend, suggestions for activities, or just want to know if there are any eligible guys or girls attending so you know what to pack, send an email to mikeandlauren@rogers.com and we'll do our best to make sure the Young Adults Weekend is the best few days of the summer.

Registration forms are available on the website!

HERMOSA ANNUAL MEETING - MAY 3

The annual meeting will take place on May 3 at First Baptist Church in Listowel. The schedule for the day is as follows:

- 11:30 am - Site plan & capital fund presentation. Hear about the progress being made on capital improvements at camp.
- 12:00 pm - Catered meal (no charge, although an offering will be taken)
- 1:30-3:30 pm - Annual meeting

All are welcome, and members of the Hermosa corporation are urged to attend. If you plan to be there for lunch, please contact Eleanor Loker (eloker@golden.net or 519-621-7923) by April 27 to register.

We want to know what you are up to! Don't forget to send updates on your life to Ian (ipoproski1969@sympatico.ca) for inclusion in a future Herald!

NEW MERCHANDISE!

Camp Hermosa is excited to unveil a variety of new Hermosa-branded merchandise. It will be for sale for the first time at the annual meeting, and will be available for sale at the camp this summer.

The new stock will include hoodies with a new design, t-shirts in a variety of colours with our 2008 slogan, golf shirts, track pants, and limited edition fleece blankets.

WORK DAYS

Are you able-bodied with a desire to be involved with camp on a short-term basis? Come out and help at one of the camp clean-up days on May 10, 24, and 31. No special skills are required, just a willingness to help prepare the camp for the summer. Bring your small group, your Sunday School class, or even a group of friends! We will provide lunch and coffee breaks. To sign up, email manager@camphermosa.org to let Scott know what day you're coming!
