from the desk of the board chair

As I look behind at a very busy year in the life of Hermosa, I also look ahead to an even better year in 2007. Working together can accomplish much with God's guidance. If we were to promote the idea together we can[™] for Hermosa, we could strive to:

Climb higher in strengthening our Christian leadership and example as well as our vision.

Achieve success for Christ in many further decisions made for Him at camp.

Nurture excellence in our service to others and to Christ in whatever we do!

In some ways, we need to view whatever we want to achieve at Hermosa as a horizontal vision. The horizon is the curved line that forms the apparent boundary between earth and the sky.

In what ways are we willing to look and explore beyond our present horizons?

Are we prepared to risk in order to reach beyond our present scope of knowledge and service?

Are we willing to go for it, even when we are not sure of what is over the horizon?

Our Christian experience should elicit compassion for those we serve. Let us be challenged, with the Lord's help, to be compassionate and visionary for the work of Hermosa in the coming years.

Chair, Board of Directors

Hey!

Did you know there is an unofficial Camp Hermosa community on Facebook?

Members can go to www.facebook.com and search for Camp Hermosa to add this to your networks.

Help us celebrate Hermosa's 50th anniversary on the current site!

Hermosa will be hosting activities, a BBQ lunch, and an afternoon annual meeting on Saturday, May 26!

Stay tuned for details.

introducing scott hadskis

Most of you are likely already familiar with Scott ... he's been around camp for 10 years in various capacities, including cabin leadership, directing, coordinating the LIT program, and acting as the most recent chair of the Program and Personnel Committee.

All of this makes Scott uniquely suited to be Camp Manager for the 2007 camp season. Scott begins part-time in April and will be full-time at the camp closer to the summer.

Scott is looking forward to working with staff and volunteers to allow campers to experience God in a deeper way this summer.

news you can use ...

Perm staff

The Hiring Committee is still looking for a resource worker and a lifeguard with instructor qualifications. Contact hireing@camphermosa.org with questions or to apply.

Changes to tuck

Camp has made a few changes to the tuck program for 2007, choosing to step away from sugary snacks and focus more on fruit and fruit juices.

Registration forms and flyers

Summer 2007 information packages have been mailed out! If you want to register for camp or apply for leadership but didn't receive a package in the mail, email info@camphermosa.org and we'll make sure you get one!

Camp rentals

Camp is available for rent again this year! A few weekends remain. Email info@camphermosa.org for pricing and information.

Volunteer leadership

Volunteer applications are being accepted now for the 2007 camp season. There is a specific need for nurses for certain camps. Contact leadership@camphermosa.org.

Website updates

Stay tuned - a new and improved www.camphermosa.org will be unveiled very soon!
